I strongly endorse this attorney.

I had been illegally arrested in a third world country by corrupt police and extorted. I did some research myself, but it was an obscure and complicated question. As a licensed professional, I was concerned about how this could impact my work.

I emailed Bob at around midnight on a Friday once I returned home. At 5 AM, he sent an email saying he was free to talk over the weekend. He provided his phone number, and I answered when I called him at 10 AM on Saturday. After allowing me to explain my situation, he gave me a qualified legal opinion, advising what to do and what steps I needed to take. He said that he would represent if I encountered had future problems with this issue, and did not charge me a dime for 30 minutes of his time on the weekend.

Bob is not only at the top of his practice area, but he is also friendly, trustworthy, and understanding, I can tell that he treats his clients in a sterling manner, and would not hesitate to hire him in the future or recommend him to colleagues.
