

sincere intentions

5.0 stars

Posted by anonymous
September 25, 2018

Flag

Mr. Bennett met with me personally for a consultation regarding a grade appeal for a required course for the family nurse practitioner program that I was in. He carefully reviewed the evidence that I had presented and provided me with invaluable legal advice, which was reflective of his many years of experience working in school law. Even though I did not hire him, he expressed very sincere intentions towards my pursuit of justice, and I am very grateful for his time, effort, patience, and generosity.

This review is from a potential client who consulted with this attorney.

Consulted attorney